

volunteer for us!

young person support worker

As a young person support worker you will volunteer within SATEDA's young person's team to help support children and young people affected by domestic abuse.

This will include assisting the facilitator in delivering education and therapeutic sessions to young people and families, as well as group work with families experiencing adolescent to parent violence.

Do you have excellent communication and boundary setting skills? Are you willing to commit to regular training and attend supervision sessions? We need somebody with creative thinking, who is reliable and good at managing their time. Does this sound like you?*

By volunteering at SATEDA, you will...

- Gain experience and transferable skills
- Receive training
- Enhance your CV
- Meet new people
- Build on your confidence and self esteem
- Develop a sense of purpose & play a part in dismantling systemic gender inequality

Please join us in supporting women and children in our community who are escaping and recovering from domestic abuse. Register your volunteering interest on our website www.sateda.org or contact our main office on 01795 417251. We need your communication skills!

*This role requires a DBS check.
